

Chair Challenge Form

This form should be used in order to complete a chair challenge. Each student must sign this paper and submitted to the director before the challenge is official. Each challenge must follow the criteria below:

- Challenger may only challenge the person sitting directly above their current chair in their band.
- If a challenger loses a challenge then they are not allowed to challenge that person again. If a person loses a challenge then they are allowed one challenge to take back their chair. (Any student is only allowed to lose a chair audition to another student twice.)
- Chair challenges will include all the same elements as the original chair audition. (Scales, Prepared, and Sight Reading)
- Challenges will be accepted on a first come first serve basis; however, exceptions may be made under certain circumstances.
- The challenger must perform first.
- Challenges between Symphonic Bands will not be allowed past a certain time in the fall semester.
- Upperclassman may not challenge freshman.
- A copy of the audition music will be given to each student at the same time and will be approved/selected by the director.
